

Art EVALUATION CHECKLIST

- ☐ Do I like the overall composition? If not, what changes can I make to improve it?
.....
- ☐ Are the proportions correct? If not, make corrections.
.....
- ☐ Is the depth correct? Evaluate light, shadow, and color depth.
.....
- ☐ Did I mix the correct hue? For example: Is it yellow, red, or blue enough?
.....
- ☐ Am I focusing too much on the whole picture, instead of following the lines and shapes of each part of my composition?
.....
- ☐ Did I start adding details too soon? (Correct proportion, depth, and hue first. Details last.)
.....
- ☐ Do I need a break to rest my eyes and/or mind?
.....

FEELING UNINSPIRED OR EXPERIENCING ARTIST'S BLOCK:

- Listen to music.
- Go for a walk, get out into nature, or visit your favorite part of town.
- Look through picture books and magazines.
- Watch films with exceptional cinematography and set design.
- Read books (they can be fiction, non-fiction, or poetry)
- Go to a museum and sign up for group art classes or open studios.
- Look at architecture and study its details.
- Look for the magic in everyday life (sunlight through a window, raindrops on leaves, sunrises, and sunsets, the shapes of clouds, etc).

Participate in activities that spark inspiration and remind you of a particular mood or theme to help get those creative juices flowing again.
